

We love what we do. We give 100% every day – even more than that, in a sense. We're always perfectly prepared. We're different. Faster than most. Always one turn of the screw more precise. We are, after all: Porsche. We are committed to the crest. An attitude that runs through everything we do.

We are hiring you as:

Parts Executive

Location: Porsche Centre Saigon

Your responsibilities:

- Process parts orders, shipping, import and export
- Warehouse parts stock control and administration
- Parts service and consultation for workshop and customers

Your qualifications:

- Basic knowledge about automotive technologies and components
- Computer and Microsoft office skills (Excel)
- Basic English language skills
- Structured and well organized working style

We are offering you:

- Comprehensive training and attractive career development opportunities
- Work with a highly professional team of Porsche enthusiast
- Work environment and processes based on highest German standards
- Attractive salary, performance based incentive schemes and extensive employee benefits
